

Unusual schools

Let's look at some unusual schools around the world.

Floating schools

This is a school on a boat! It can float on a river. There are classrooms on the boat. Each morning, children go onto the boat to have classes.

Forest schools

For these children, nature is the classroom. Students learn in the forest. They spend all day outdoors and study different plants and insects.

Green schools

This green school is made of bamboo. There are no walls! Children study different ways to protect the Earth.

Circle the correct answers.

1 Does a floating school have classrooms?

Yes, it does.

No, it doesn't.

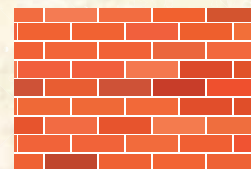

2 What is the green school made of?

wood

bamboo

bricks

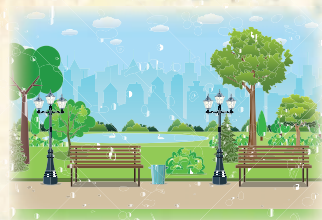

3 In a forest school, where do students have lessons?

classroom

forest

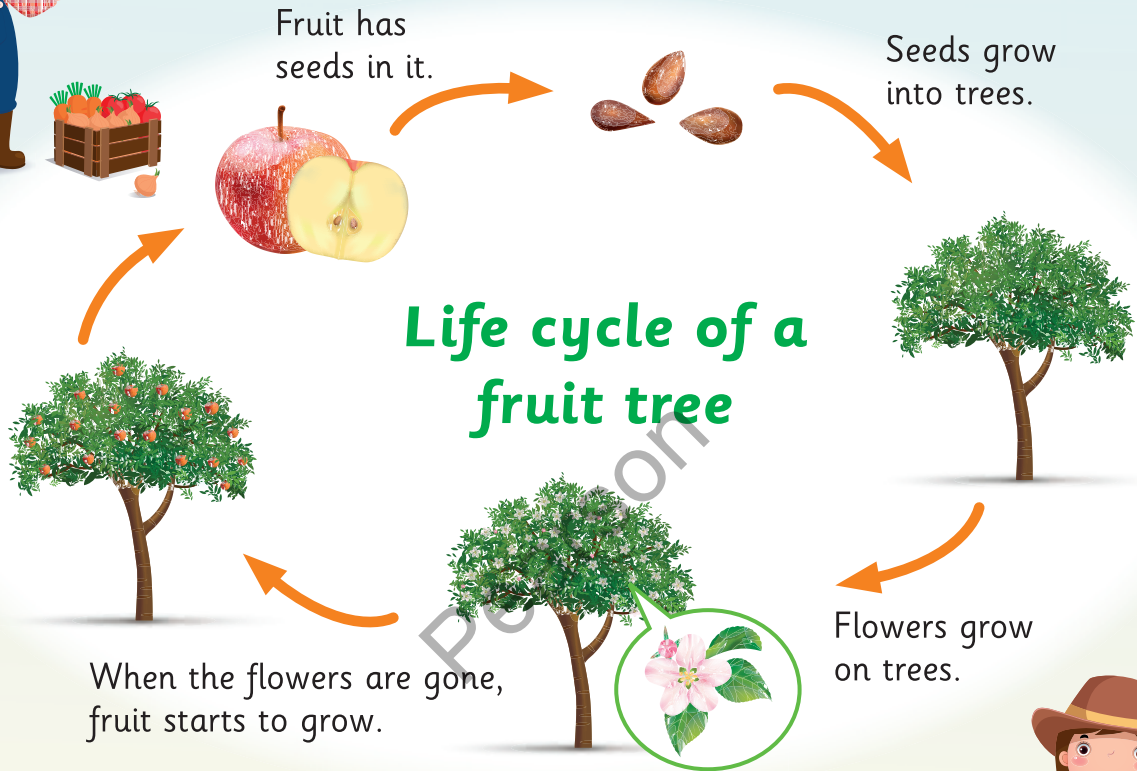

park

FRUIT

Do you like apples? Where do apples come from?

What other types of fruit grow on trees?
Oranges, coconuts, peaches and more.

Most berries, such as blueberries and raspberries, grow on bushes.

Grapes and kiwi fruit grow on vines. Their vines like to climb upwards.

Watermelons and cantaloupes grow on vines too. Their vines are on the ground.

Where do these kinds of fruit grow? Match.

1

.

2

.

3

.

4

.

a b c d

Driverless vehicles

Sam gets on a special bus today. He wants to say 'Hi' to the driver, but there are no drivers on the bus!

It is a driverless bus. It does not have a driver!

You can find driverless buses in countries such as China, Germany, France and Canada.

Are there any driverless taxis and cars?

Yes, there are.

How do driverless cars work?

1

Tell the car where to go. Then, the computer finds the best way to get there.

2

On the road, the driverless car sees traffic lights, road signs, other cars and even people.

3

Sit back and enjoy the ride.

Are these sentences correct or not? Circle ✓ or X.

1 A driverless car doesn't have a driver.

2 There are driverless buses in China.

3 A driverless car cannot see other cars on the road.

