Virtual birthday party

Do you know that you can actually invite friends from other countries to join your birthday party? You can throw a party online! This is how you do it:

Choose a theme for your party. It can be a superhero party, a princess party, or anything you like.

Write your guest list. Who do you want to invite?

Make an online invitation card.

Prepare some online games.

For example, you can play Pictionary. One guest draws a thing on the whiteboard and the others guess what it is.

Have fun at the party!

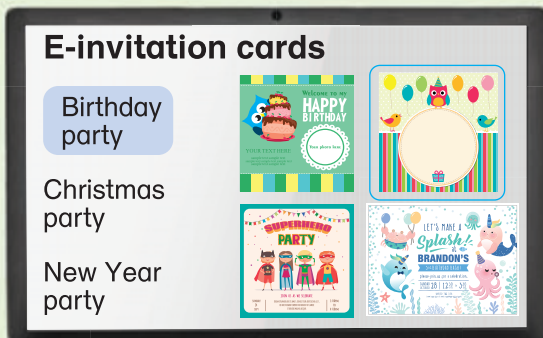

How to make an online invitation card (an e-card):

- 1 Open a search engine in your web browser. Search for a website that has free online invitation cards.

Enter keywords in the search box like this!

Free online invitation card

- 2 Choose the design you like.

- 3 Upload your photo.

Type in details of your birthday party. Make sure your guests know how to join the party!

- 5 Send the e-card to your guests through e-mail.

What can you do at a virtual birthday party?

- A. Share your birthday cake with your friends.
- B. Chat with your friends.
- C. Play games with your friends.
- D. Wear funny clothes.

Special Days for Mums and Dads

Mother's Day and Father's Day both started in the USA. Most countries celebrate Mother's Day on the second Sunday in May and Father's Day on the third Sunday in June. Some countries celebrate these special days on a different date.

I baked a special cake for Mum.

Alex, Britain

I prepared a delicious meal for Mum on her special day.

Sita, India

I gave Mum a bouquet of carnations on Mother's Day. On Father's Day, I bought Dad a bag of his favourite coffee beans. Of course, I gave both Mum and Dad a lot of kisses and hugs.

Rachel, USA

I sang to Mum on Mother's Day. On Father's Day, Dad and I ran a 21-kilometre race in Mexico City. We enjoyed a big meal together afterwards. Yum!

Diego, Mexico

I gave yellow flowers to my dad on Father's Day. We all wore yellow clothes that day.

Kanya, Thailand

On Father's Day, I prepared a tasty breakfast in bed for Dad.

Hugo, Spain
